Certificate for

Amman Granites

The natural stones from India, the country of origin, are free from child labour. Production and quarries are regularly monitored. The control audits are carried out by the IGEP Group in India in collaboration with the Rugmark Foundation India. In addition to child labour, social and environmental conditions are also examined according to the International Social and Environmental Standard (ISES 2020). The surplus of the fees from the Indian exporting companies and the importers are used for social activities, mainly in education, training and health. All expenditures and incomes are subject to strict control by financial authorities and auditors. They are completely transparent.
